

The Monterey Bay World Language Project

at California State University, Monterey Bay invites you to participate in the 2016-2017 Seminars for World Language Teachers

Over 15 years the Monterey Bay World Language Project (MBWLP), one of the sites of the California World Language Project affiliated with the California Subject Matter Project, has been offering seminars to promote best language teaching practices in Monterey, San Benito & Santa Cruz counties. The MBWLP Team is composed of experienced language teachers because we believe that “Teachers Teaching Teachers” is the most effective way to encourage the use of proficiency-oriented, standards-based strategies to improve student performance. Please join us, fees negotiable!

Upon request, we can also deliver workshops specifically for the language teachers at your school or district on a variety of relevant topics.

Program 1. Exploring Social Justice in the World Language Classroom:

How to Inspire Students to be Active Global Citizens

5 Saturdays, 9AM to 4PM: September 24, October 29 & December 3, 2016;
March 11 & April 29, 2017

How can we as language teachers prepare our students to be agents of social change? Join us as we design lessons for students at all levels aligned with Common Core and California State Standards through the lens of social justice. Bring your passion to change the world through teaching!

$250 per participant; 2 teachers from same school: $200; First year teacher: $125;
teacher accompanied by student teacher: $125; student teacher: $50.

(Registration Deadline is Sept 16)

Program 2. Winter Session: Standards-Aligned Instruction Using Technology

2 Saturdays, 9AM to 4PM—January 14 & 21, 2017

Create and explore basic applications and web-based resources (web 2.0) that you can readily use in your classroom with your students. Build engaging lessons aligned with the World Language and Common Core Standards. Today's students will enjoy your class more when you've added technology to their learning tasks as they become more proficient in the target language.

$120 per participant; teachers from the same school: $100 each; first year teacher: $70;
teacher accompanied by student teacher: $70; Student teacher: $60

(Registration Deadline is Jan 17)

Program 3. Summer Session: Standards-Aligned Thematic Unit Design Using Technology 3 consecutive days, 9AM to 4PM—Mon., Tues. Wed. June 12, 14 & 14, 2016 (tentative)

These three days will give you time to get practice necessary to design lessons that use technology to create lessons that will stimulate your students to dive into and take more responsibility for their progress. You will be able to benefit as well from the experience of other teacher participants and come away with meaningful lessons aligned with the Common Core and CA World Language Content Standards.

$180 per participant; teachers from the same school $150 each; first year teacher: $100;
teacher accompanied by student teacher: $100; Student teacher: $70.

(Registration Deadline is June 8)

Registration for all workshops includes continental breakfast, lunch, instructional materials, parking permit. Continuing Education Units from CSUMB Extended Education are available for a separate fee.

Location: CSU, Monterey Bay, School of World Languages & Cultures, WLC-North, Bldg. 49
