PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The BCLAD course sequence will prepare bilingual teacher candidates to teach Spanish-English bilingual students. BCLAD teacher candidates will examine theories, research, and pedagogy that support bilingual and bicultural development. Through teacher inquiry and field experiences, BCLAD teacher candidates will integrate learnings from coursework to develop and apply culturally and linguistically sustaining pedagogy in local classrooms.

Each candidate is ensured a highly individualized, relevant experience through ongoing, structured mentoring from a support provider, mentorship, university coursework, and university/district collaboration.

PROGRAM PREPARES CANDIDATES TO:

- Value knowledge and reflection that leads to effective teaching practice to serve our diverse population
- Recognize the rights of Spanish-speaking students
- Leverage multilingualism as an asset
